Board Policy

FINANCIAL AID

In keeping with its mission to be open equally to all adults or high school graduates who can benefit from its programs and services, Glendale Community College provides federal and state student financial aid grant, loan and work-study programs for eligible students enrolled at the college

The District will comply with applicable federal and state laws and other applicable regulatory requirements. The Superintendent/President or designee shall establish, publicize and apply satisfactory academic progress standards for participants in federal Title IV student aid programs.

Consistent with the applicable federal regulations for federal financial aid, the District shall not engage in “substantial misrepresentation” of 1) the nature of its educational program, 2) the nature of its financial charges, or 3) the employability of its graduates. The Superintendent/President or designee shall establish procedures for regularly reviewing the District’s website and other informational materials for accuracy and completeness and for training District employees and vendors providing educational programs, marketing, advertising, recruiting or admission services concerning the District’s educational programs, financial programs, financial charges and employment of graduates to assure compliance with this policy.

The Superintendent/President or designee shall establish procedures wherein the District shall periodically monitor employees’ and vendors’ communications with prospective students and members of the public and take corrective action where needed.

This policy does not create a private cause of action against the District or any of its representatives or service providers. The District and its Governing Board do not waive any defenses or governmental immunities by enacting this policy.
